Hi David,

Thanks for your email! I'm taking a look right now... It looks you are possibly using you own code for the submission button?

We provide you with the code to embed a submission button on the 'Settings' page of your account (direct link). It makes it really easy to just copy/paste the code snippet.

However, if you'd like to continue using the code that you have on the page already, you'll just need to update the link that an author is sent to when they click the button. The link that you currently have is <https://scholasticahq.com/> (see image) and the link needs to be updated to <https://segeology.scholasticahq.com/for-authors>

Please let me know if you have any additional questions!

Have a lovely day,

Hi, Anna--I hope you are well. I have a small problem. I have had a new website designed by GoDaddy and I don't think the Scholastica link is working properly. Or perhaps I've forgotten how it is supposed to work. The link on my website takes you to a general Scholastica page and not my journal page. There is no indication that you have to set up an account to use Scholastica.

Could you please take a look at the "For Authors" tab in www.southeasterngeology.org and see what you think?

Thanks,
